Thank you very much for your letter of 1 October offering your services to the Central Intelligence Agency in the [   ] area. Your high level of cooperation in the past has been drawn to my personal attention a number of times and I can assure you that I am most grateful for your continuing assistance over many years.

We shall certainly be alert to any requirement for services such as you have to offer, particularly on any extended basis. However, we do not see such a require- ment at this time.

Again, please be assured that your past and present interest in our work and desire to assist us is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Unfortunately, the Agency does not have an opening suitable for a person of your background and abilities. There are very few vacancies today in the higher grades and our general policy, except in very rare cases, is to bring on duty men in their late twenties or early thirties and train them over a protracted period.

Again, please be assured that your past and present interest in our work and desire to assist us is greatly appreciated.
